GLOBAL MARKETS HIGHLIGHTS

AUSTRALIA: Australian shares dropped on Tuesday, with miners and energy stocks leading declines, as the country's central bank stuck to its words to cut back stimulus even as heavily-populated states remained under lockdowns.

NEW YORK: U.S. stocks moved higher and the S&P 500 set a new record high as broad market strength outweighed the travel names held back by Covid fears.

LONDON: Strong earnings updates from heavyweights including BP and Societe Generale drove European stocks to a record-high close.

HONG KONG: Stocks in Asia-Pacific were mixed, with Hong Kong-listed shares of firms in the Chinese online gaming market down after the activity was described as a type of "opium" by Chinese state media.
